

"Delivering High Quality Public Services to European Citizens"

17th November 2015 - European Parliament (Brussels)

Room ASP 3H1 - Interpretation FR/EN

From 18:00	Registration
18:30	Introduction Monika VANA, Vice-chair of the Working Group on Public Services
18:35	Opening statements Harrie TEMMINK, European Commission, DG Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs Thierry DURNERIN, Chair of CEEP Local Enterprise Committee Barbara HAUENSCHILD, The Austrian Association for Political Consulting and Development Thomas PROROK, KDZ - Centre for Public Administration Research, Deputy Managing Director
19:10	Debate
19:50	Closing remarks Jean-Paul DENANOT, Chair of the Working Group on Public Services

MAIN QUESTIONS TO BE ADDRESSED

How is the discretionary power of regional and local authorities regarding public services guaranteed in EU secondary law?

Why is it important to maintain this power?

Which problems do authorities providing public services face at the moment and which problems could arise from international agreements currently negotiated?